Pirates Climb To No. 7 In NSCAA DII Top 25 Coaches Poll

Posted: Oct 02, 2012

SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong Atlantic State University women's soccer squad moved up two spots to No. 7 in the latest Continental Tire/NSCAA Division II Top 25 Coaches Poll, released Tuesday by the organization.

The Pirates (6-1-1, 4-0 PBC) won a pair of Peach Belt Conference matches last week, downing UNC Pembroke, 4-2, on the road on Wednesday and claiming a 4-3 overtime win over North Georgia at home on Saturday. The win over North Georgia extended Armstrong's home unbeaten streak to 35 and the two PBC wins means that the Pirates are unbeaten in their last 18 regular season league matches dating back to 2010.

The College of St. Rose (8-0-1) is the top-ranked team in the nation in this week's poll, while West Florida (10-0-0) is ranked No. 2. Armstrong travels to face West Florida on Monday, October 8th, in a 5:30 p.m. matchup of Top 10 ranked squads.

Columbus State (9-1) is the only other Peach Belt school currently ranked as the Cougars check in at No. 10.
